Program

Frederick C. Williams Dublin City Schools International Baccalaureate Program

Frederick C. Williams is a native of Plantation, Florida. He is married to Melissa McCloud Williams and the proud father of three children: Whitley, Frederick II, Gracelyn.

Dr. Williams is a product of the Broward County School System where he attended Nova High School. Upon graduation, he earned an athletic scholarship to Clark-Atlanta University. While attending college, he was awarded numerous academic and athletic awards.

His love and desire to help every child led him to become an educator. In 1993, he started his teaching career with the Dublin City School System as a Physical Education Teacher and Football Coach for the Dublin Fighting Irish Football Team. Dr. Williams furthered his education by obtaining a Masters of Education degree from Troy University and a doctoral degree from Nova Southeastern University. He completed the Georgia State School Superintendent Association Professional Development Program. He is the former award winning principal of Susie Dasher and Dublin Middle School. Dr. Williams is the Superintendent of Dublin City Schools.

Dr. Williams received the Georgia School Superintendents President's Award in 2017. He currently serves on the Charter System Board of Directors, Georgia Department of Education Charter Advisory Committee Member, United Way Board of Directors and is an Ex-Officio Member of the Dublin-Laurens Chamber of Commerce. He is a member of the Rotary Club of Dublin and Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

He has always had a love for the Lord. Dr. Williams is currently the Pastor-Teacher of Turkey Creek Missionary Baptist Church.
