Jack Walker

2019 — 2020 Dublin Rotary Club President

Jack Walker is a native of Dublin. He graduated from Trinity Christian School in 1986 and Auburn University School of Architecture in 1992. After completing his architectural internship with Chick-fil-A Corporation, focusing specifically on corporate compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, he moved to Los Angeles to learn the trade of production design in television/film and has had an occasional role as an actor. He met and married Buffy Burns Walker in Los Angeles and together they decided to raise their family in the slower pace of home.

Jack joined the Board of Directors of Morris Bank in 2016 and has served for the past fourteen years on the Dublin Downtown Development Authority as Dublin's downtown has transformed into a destination of Middle Georgia. He has served on the Dublin Laurens County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and currently serves as Chairman of the Board for the Dublin-Laurens County Recreation Department.

He is the president of Pure Warehouse LLC, which owns businesses in Dublin and Warner Robins, and often serves as a design/build consultant to Chick-fil-A Corporation, Chick-fil-A Foundation, and The Cathy Family. His latest design project is a permanent art installation and tribute to Truett and Jeannette Cathy, which is on display in the Junior Achievement wing of the Georgia World Congress Center.

He lives in Dublin with his wife Buffy and their four children: Evan 17, Wade 16, Judd 11, and Elle 11.
