Ryan Waldrep
President

Dublin-Laurens Development Authority

Ryan Waldrep currently serves as President of the Dublin-Laurens County Development Authority which promotes the community as an ideal location for manufacturing, distribution and technology-based companies. Ryan's experience with issues such as small business development, workforce development and others help bring practical solutions to economic development issues faced by the Dublin-Laurens County Development Authority.

Ryan's involvement with the Authority began long before 2019. For 12 years, Ryan worked with the Georgia Department of Economic Development, serving as a Regional Project Manager and Assistant Director of Entrepreneur and Small Business. During this time, he assisted companies considering Georgia as a business destination with expansion and relocation opportunities. Ryan also worked with communities to enhance entrepreneurial ecosystems.

Prior to joining the Georgia Department of Economic Development, Ryan served as President of the Telfair County Chamber of Commerce and Development Authority and as an Economic Development Planner at the Heart of Georgia Altamaha Regional Commission.

Ryan earned his Certification in Economic Development through the International Economic Development Council in 2006 and Economic Development Finance Professional through the National Development Council in 2012. His membership affiliations include the Georgia Economic Development Association and the International Economic Development Council. Ryan is a graduate of Leadership Georgia and served as a Program Chair in 2019.

A native of McRae, Ryan holds an MPA in Public Management and a BFA in Speech Communication (Public Relations), both from Valdosta State University. Ryan resides in Dublin with his wife, Amanda, and two sons, Adam and Ethan.
