Cindy Eidson and Rebecca Johnson Visit Dublin: Tourism Update

Cindy is the Director for the Office of Tourism Product Development with the Georgia Department of Economic Development (GDEcD). Cindy received a Master's of City Planning from the Georgia Institute of Technology and a Bachelor of Housing and Community Economic Development--Family and Consumer Sciences from the University of Georgia and completed preservation studies in Historic Preservation from Georgia State University.

Cindy is a former Manager for the Office of Downtown Development with the Georgia Department of Community Affairs for almost 2 years; and also serving as Manager over Training and Special Projects with the Office of Downtown Development for 9 years as well as Better Hometown Program Coordinator for 4 years and as the Main Street Manager for both the City of Gainesville and Newnan Main Street Programs. With a total of 28 years of downtown planning experience, Cindy also worked as a Preservation Planner Intern with the Georgia Mountain RDC and 6 years with the University of Georgia's Cooperative Extension Service.

A native of Las Vegas, Nevada, Rebecca Johnson followed her love of architecture, history, and landscape variety to Georgia in 2005. A graduate of University of California, San Marcus, Johnson serves as the Executive Director of Visit Dublin GA, where she shares her passion for tourism as an engine for economic and community development all while sampling the best Georgia food (in downtown Dublin, of course!), exploring backroads, and collecting bits of Georgia history.

Johnson has served as president of Magnolia Midlands Travel Association and on the board of directors of Georgia Association of Convention and Visitors Bureaus, and currently serves on the Regional Visitors Information Center program steering committee. On behalf of Visit Dublin GA, her work has received awards from GACVB for marketing initiatives including print collateral and website design, as well as earned numerous product development grants from GDEcD Tourism Division, Georgia Council of the Arts, and Georgia Department of Transportation.
