Program

Darlene McLendon
Museum of Aviation
RAFB Foundation
President and CEO

Since 2009, Darlene McLendon has worked with community non-profits to grow their brand, budget, and community connections. Primarily in Chamber of Commerce leadership roles, Darlene has expanded her skill-set to include tools focused on team building, sponsorship relations, tourism, economic development, and community engagement.

As a graduate of the Mike Monroney Aeronautical Center (FAA), Darlene is excited to bring her skills to the Museum of Aviation Foundation. Darlene was first introduced to RAFB upon her graduation from MMAC and Controller assignment to the Macon RAPCON. In fact, the red & white Civil Air Patrol tower which sits on the MOA campus was her first ATC tower when it was located at what is now the Macon Regional Airport.

A strong believer that the greatest work can be accomplished when passion aligns with skill and opportunity, Darlene looks forward to expanding the MOA brand and support across Georgia and the United States.

On a personal note, Darlene is married to Julian K. McLendon, MD and has two children: Julian McLendon, III and Jessica Gustafson (Paul).
