PROGRAM

Dublin Salvation Army Service Center
Charika Todd
Director

Charika Todd is the managing director of The Dublin Salvation Army Service Center. She is responsible for charitable operations including fundraising, business administration, and programming and is leading activities to develop financial resources, increase investments in employees, social services, collaborate with other service organizations, and expand outcomes-oriented programming.

Before assuming her role as managing director, Charika worked as an assistance Director at the Dublin Salvation Army Service Center. She has worked at the Salvation Army a total of seven years. Mrs. Todd graduated from Dublin High School and further education at Oconee Fall Line Technical College completing a certification in Accounting. She serves on the Dublin Civitan Club Board as Sergeant of Arms. She enjoys giving back to the community by organizing ways to serve families with food, clothing, and shelter. Her goal is to continue the mission of the Salvation Army and serve the residents of Laurens County.

Greeter : Tim Redding
Invocation: Erica Harden
