GREETER

INVOCATION

DANNY JONES

GIBBS FLANDERS

Easter Seals Middle Georgia, Inc.

In 1907, Ohio Rotarian Edgar Allen lost his son in a streetcar accident. The lack of adequate emergency medical services available to save his son prompted Allen to sell his business and begin a fund-raising campaign to build a hospital in his hometown of Elyria, Ohio. Through this new hospital, Allen was surprised to learn that children with disabilities were often hidden from public view. Inspired by this discovery, in 1919 Allen founded the Society for Crippled Children, now known as Easter Seals. Over the next 20 years, with the help of many Rotary Clubs and his friend Paul Harris, the organization grew to 37 locations in the United States.

Today, Easter Seals is a network of over 160 affiliates throughout the United States serving children and adults with disabilities and special needs. The organization provides physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech and hearing therapy, vocational training and placement, camping and other recreational opportunities, child care, and adult day care services.

In February 1976, Easter Seals Middle Georgia began providing vocational evaluation services in an office of the current Bank of Dudley building in downtown Dublin. During that same year a voluntary committee of Laurens County residents headed a fund raising endeavor with the goal of raising funds needed to build a vocational development center.

Today in our 40th year of operation, Easter Seals Middle Georgia has 5 facilities in the Middle Georgia area providing industrial services to our military and many local and national partners. We offer Work Adjustment Training Services, Transitional Employment Services, Independent Living Services, Residential Services, Transportation Services and Children's Services. Our programs assist hundreds of people and their families each year.

As always, Easter Seals Middle Georgia continues to seek programs that benefit our community and opportunities with business and industry that support our mission of providing vocational rehabilitation and other services to persons with disabilities.
