John Bowen

Since 2005, John Bowen has served as the coordinator of leadership programs at Georgia College, where he directs the Emerging Leaders Program, the Leadership Certificate Program, the Georgia Education Mentorship (GEM) Program, and the Inspire! Student Leadership Forum.

John also serves as faculty secretary for Omicron Delta Kappa (National Leadership Honor Society), and advisor to the student-led organization Bobcats Against Hunger. From 2007-2011, he taught in the GC Outdoor Education program, instructing courses and workshops in wilderness living, backpacking, rock-climbing, and caving.

John earned a Master's in Outdoor Education Administration from Georgia College, a Bachelor's in History from the University of Georgia, and an Associate's in Language and Literature from Andrew College. While in graduate school he completed a 70+ day semester with the National Outdoor Leadership School (NOLS) in the backcountry of Alaska.

Raised in Cuthbert, Georgia, John now lives in Greene County with his wife, Megan, and daughters, Lizzie and Hannah. In his free time, he enjoys reading, running, and spending time with family. He dreams of one day opening a specialty donut shop, a craft brewery, or a hand-made wooden furniture store - despite knowing nothing about any of those things.
