GEORGIA'S ENERGY FUTURE

Tim Echols, Commissioner
Georgia Public Service Commission

Tim Echols was elected to the Commission in the general election of November 2010 after spending 15 years in the non-profit sector. Echols founded "TeenPact" and grew the mock legislative youth program to 38 states in his tenure. He continues to serve on the Board of Directors.

Tim's campaign focused on consumer protection, clean energy, and accountability. He travels the state speaking to students, civic groups and businesses about the importance of the PSC's responsibilities especially providing accountability to those the agency regulates.

Tim has three degrees from the University of Georgia and still makes his home in the Athens area with his wife Windy and their seven children.

Allie Kelly, Senior Vice President Georgia Conservancy

An Atlanta native, Allison Kelly earned a B.A. degree in political science from the University of Georgia. She worked for United Parcel Service's Public Affairs office in Washington, D.C., before returning to Atlanta in 2000 to direct a clean air project for the Rockefeller Family Fund, advocating for stricter air pollution controls and healthier air quality statewide.

In 2002, Allie founded Georgia Watch, the state's only consumer watchdog organization. In 2009, she left Georgia Watch to join the Georgia Conservancy as its senior vice president.

BEWARE OF NEW EMAIL SCAM CLAIMING TO BE FROM FOUNDATION CHAIR KLINGINSMITH

A new email purporting to be from Rotary Foundation Trustee Chair Ray Klingensmith is targeting Rotary members. The email falsely claims that members can become End Polio Now ambassadors if they email club information to a Gmail address within 48 hours. The fraudulent email has the subject line "BECOME AN END POLIO AMBASSADOR" and is sent from a fake email address. This is a scam. Rotary staff is working to resolve the issue. Avoid being the victim of scams by deleting any email that appears suspicious.
